ANNOUNCEMENTS

AT THE BREED

Large sized audiences attended all performances at the Breed yesterday, and all were well pleased with the exceptionally fine bill that is being presented. Today will be the last chance to see this benner show, the feature of which is a five-part Metro drama, featuring America's favorite stage star, Ethel Barrymore, in the Final Judgement. It is a beautiful society drama in five gripping parts and in the role of Mrs. Campbell, the district attorney's wife, Miss Barrymore is seen at her best.

For Wednesday and Thursday the feature screen production at the Breed will be The Catspaw, an enchanting tale of double identity founded on the novel by William Hamilton Osborna. It is a Kielne-Edison feature and is in five parts.

The Breed is equipped with fourteen large electric fans and with their fine ventilating system makes the house always cool and an ideal place. Large sized audiences attended all

REVOLUTIONARY OUTBREAK

IN HANKOW, CHINA A Large District Was Burned and Looted-Many Natives Killed.

Peking, July 31.-In a revolutionary outbreak in Hankow last night a large district was burned and looted and many natives were killed and some Russian women injured before foreign volunteers checked the uprising.

The revolutionary attempt was di-rected by the leaders of the Kuo-ming-tang, the radical revolutionary party of China against the military governor. Tuchun Wang. The rioters started from the Japanese concession. The demonstration apparently was planned to frighten the Peking government into granting the Kuo-Mingtang a larger recognition in the reorganization of the government at the meeting of parliament which begins tomorrow
